

ADVANCED OR BEGINNER...CCTA HAS A CAMP FOR YOU!

Toby Orenstein, Founder and Artistic Director of CCTA, is the owner of Toby's Dinner Theatres of Columbia and Baltimore and originated The Young Columbians. She is considered a matriarch of the arts in Maryland, being named Maryland of Distinction by Maryland Life Magazine in 2007 and inducted into the Maryland Women's Hall of Fame in 2008. She and Toby's Dinner Theatre have been nominated for over 35 Helen Hayes Awards including Best Director for her direction of Jekyll & Hyde.

Toby's philosophy on arts education is that "you nurture children by creating a safe and fun environment where children can take risks. This affords every child the opportunity to grow both personally and artistically. It is upon this belief that the CCTA Performing Arts Camps are based.

NEW! PRE-TEEN PROFESSIONAL THEATRE

NEW this year, CCTA's Pre-Teen Professional Theatre is a new program that offers more advanced musical theatre training for serious young performers. Acceptance is based on audition.

TEEN PROFESSIONAL THEATRE

Our Teen Professional Theatre is a nationally-recognized, audition-based production workshop that grew out of the popularity of our Performing Arts Camps and the students' desire to achieve a higher level of artistry. The recipient of five grants from the National Endowment for the arts, this workshop provides a unique and challenging professional experience designed for highly motivated and talented high school and college actors. This intense workshop raises the caliber of performance by utilizing professional guest directors, musicians and technical staff hired to serve as mentors and teachers throughout each sessions.
